

Our Partner Program participants (n=105) reported that:

88% had a positive perception of adults Most of the Time or Always

91% indicated that the trips allowed them to do something that they never thought they could

91% indicated that the trips increased self confidence

93% felt comfortable asking questions on the trip

93% indicated that Outdoor Outreach motivated them to experience new and different things

97% indicated that they would do the activities again if given the opportunity

70% could tell one thing they learned through Outdoor Outreach about the environment that they didn't know before